

JACKSONIAN HERITAGE

The wearing of the academic robe: A mark of distinction for seniors.

Going to classes:
A daily aspect of school life.

Jacksonian Heritage
Stonewall Jackson High School
Thomas Snyder, Principal
Mt. Jackson, Va.

Getting off the bus:
Ready for a busy day.

Studying in the library: A must for every student.

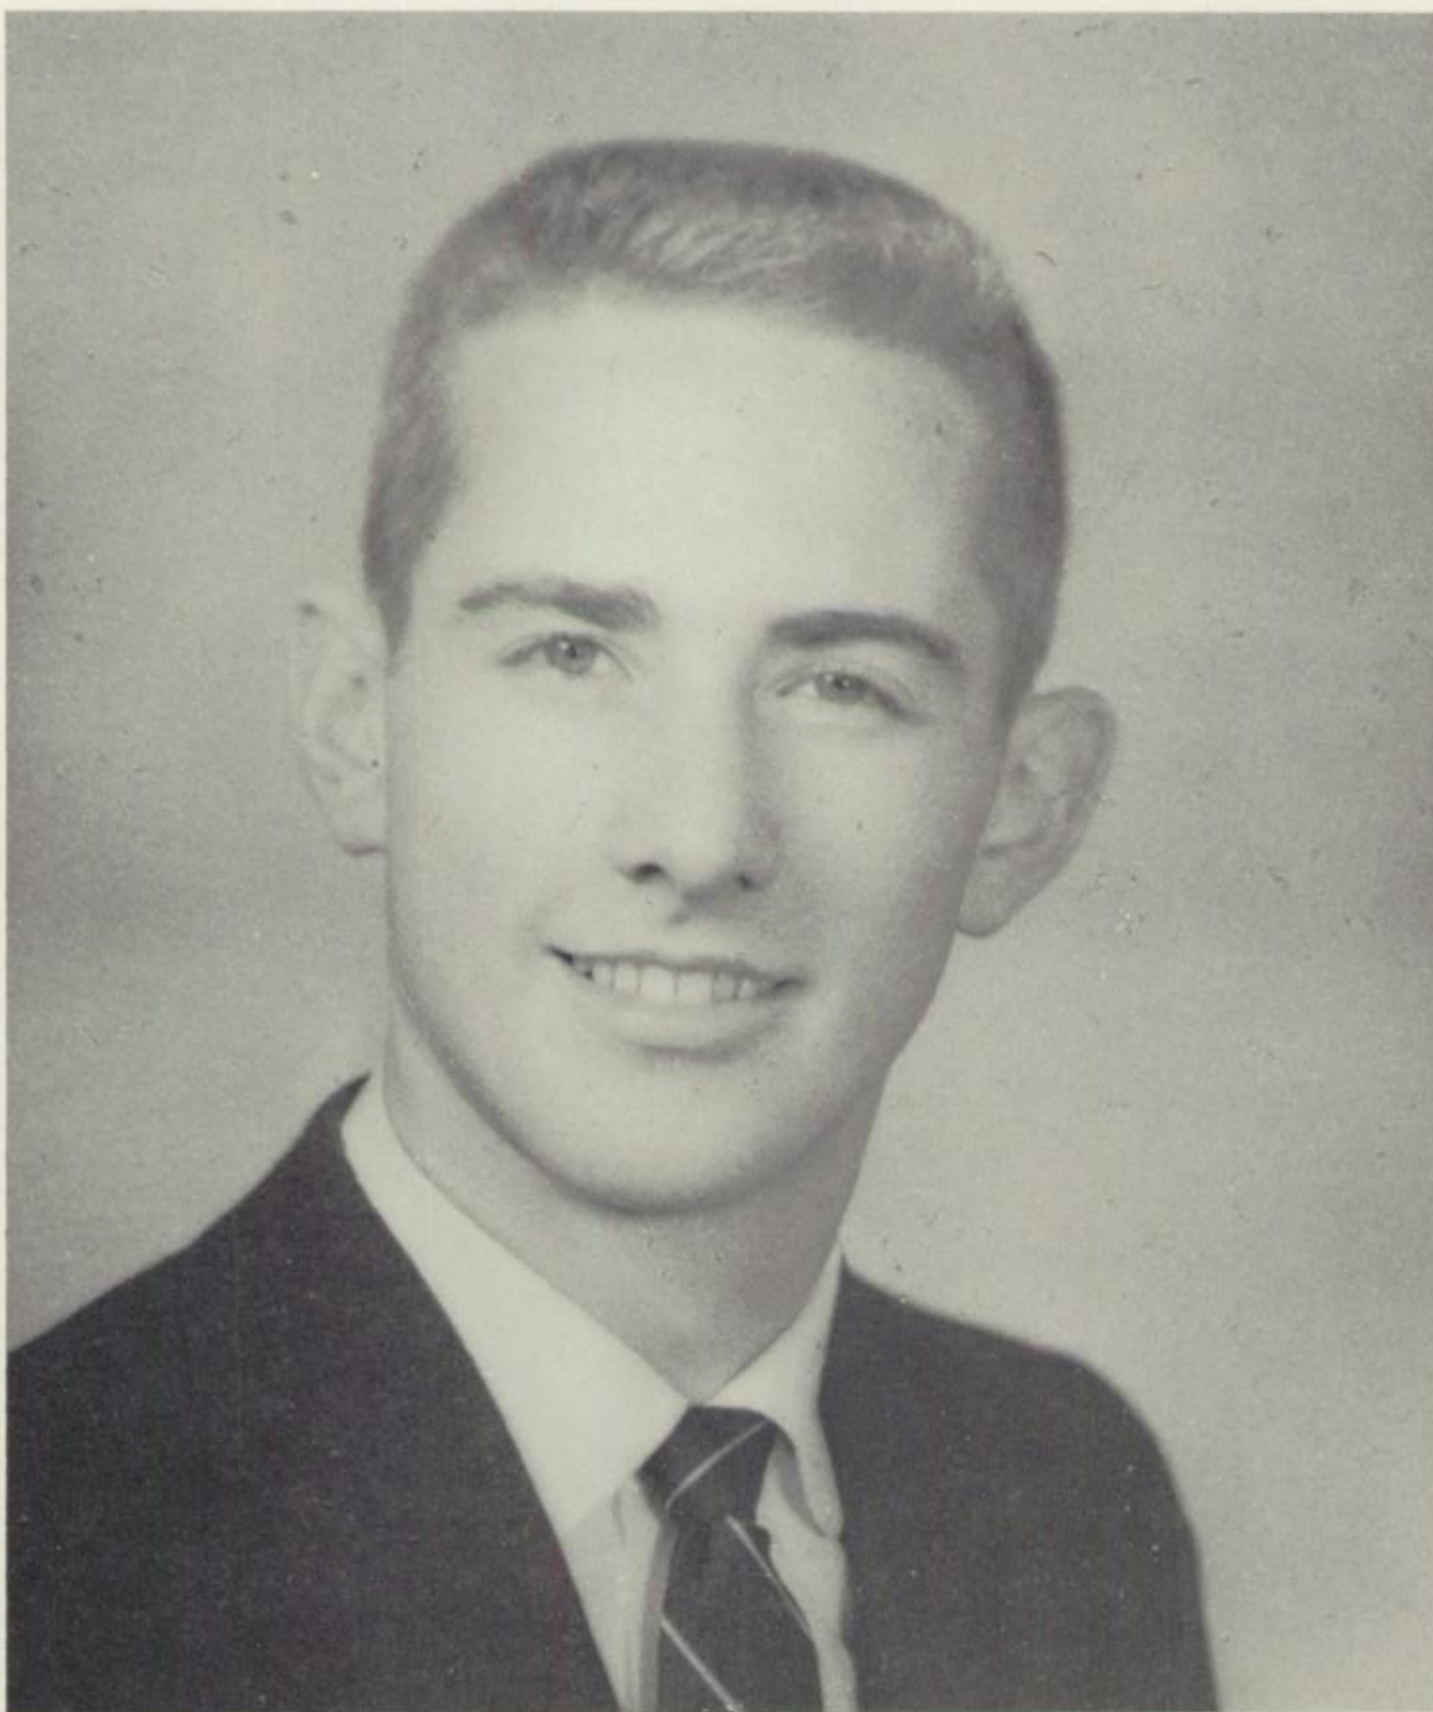

Foreword

How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnished, not to shine in use!

Life piled on life as tho' to be little remains: but every hour is saved from that eternal silence, something more, a bringer of new things. Death closes all: but something ere the end, some work of noble note, may yet be done. We are a part of all that we have met.

One equal temper of heroic hearts, made weak by time and fate, but strong in will to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

--Ulysses

To Jerry Mundy Wampler

As a small token of our appreciation for his unselfish devotion to the students of Stonewall Jackson High School we

The Principal at Faculty Meeting

Our Principal

The students of Stonewall Jackson High School can be justly proud of their accomplishments during the 1961-1962 school year. It is hoped that these accomplishments will serve to inspire others and to stimulate you to achieve even greater goals in the coming years.

As you seek your way in life, I would remind you of General Stonewall Jackson's remark, "A MAN MAY BE WHAT HE WISHES TO BE."

The Heritage Goes To Press

To the students the yearbook when it is published each year means simply a book filled with pictures depicting a year at Stonewall. To the staff, however, it means more than this. To the advertising staff it has meant a series of trips all over the county soliciting for ads. To the business staff it has meant selling subscriptions and getting enough money for publication.

Those students who worked several nights a week compiling the yearbook can well remember how they wracked their brains for creative ideas in placing the material.

But more than all these things the staff has received feelings of accomplishment in trying to serve the student body by publishing a yearbook filled with memories of life at Stonewall Jackson High.

Library Club

The Library Club enables library assistants to enjoy companionship of fellow students with common interests. Planned programs are given at monthly meetings. It attempts to interest other students in library work and impress upon them the pleasure and value of library use. The club sponsors a tea for the faculty during National Book Week and decorating of the hall bulletin boards three times during the year.

The chief aim of the Library Club is to render SERVICE to the student body of Stonewall Jackson.

Class Poem

MOTTO: "The Higher We Climb, the Broader the View"

CLASS COLORS: Red and White

THE HIGHER WE CLIMB, THE BROADER THE VIEW

This, our flight to new horizons,
Is one we've worked for so hard.
Our furnaces of hope, of faith, of love
Have all been properly fired.

We've tried our best to prepare,
To make ourselves ready for when
Our lives shall be turned over to US
And we must do as best we can.

Our teachers unselfishly helped us,
Our principal has done his best.
They all have played a great part
In helping us pass life's tests.

We're proud of our many achievements,
We've made ourselves well-known.
Through learning, trying, and failing;
In body and mind we've grown.

We see our duties ahead of us
And know what we must do.
These duties to God, to country,
Ourselves, our beliefs, and you.

We've enjoyed these years of learning
But, now we must move onward
To strengthen, to better the best.
So, let our cry be "Forward".

And through all past experiences
We found this motto we use.
Its words, so true, so obviously right;
"The Higher We Climb, the Broader the View".

Flight to New Horizons

We leave to you

Class History

As we, the Senior Class of 1962, look back over the joyous memories of our high school years we have a distinct feeling of accomplishment and success.

And now let's journey back a few years to the beginning of our high school career.

As eighth and ninth graders we attended Triplett and New Market High Schools.

As Sophomores, our first year at Stonewall Jackson, we had an entire new life ahead of us. With the help of our patient advisors Mrs. Dorothy Dellinger, Mrs. Wallace Smith, and Miss Judy Bird, we learned to know the students and chose the officers for the year 1959-60. President, Richard Richman; Vice-President, Doyal Miller; Secretary, Bobbie Holtzman; and Treasurer, Gary Stickley.

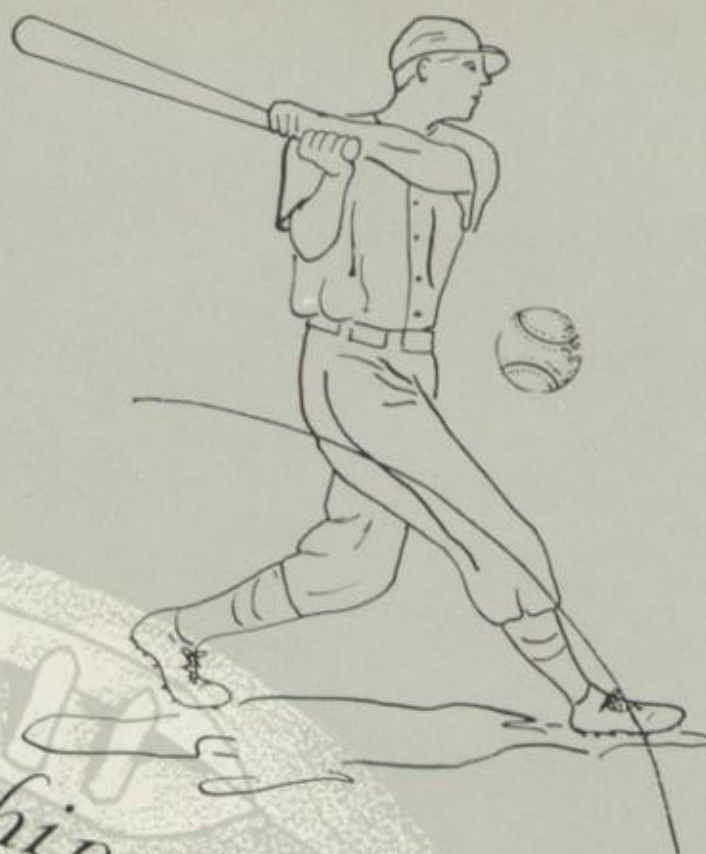

In the year 1960-61, we the Jolly Juniors of Stonewall Jackson presented our first play, "Rest Assured," which was a great success. One of the most memorable moments was the day we received our class rings. For the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom we chose "Hawaiian Cruise." This event will long be remembered both by those who helped decorate and by those who attended. None of the activities could have been accomplished had it not been for our wonderful advisors, Mrs. Virginia Myers, Miss Judy Bird, Mr. James O'Dell. To guide us this year we elected Donnie Polk, President; Linwood Zirkle, Vice-President; Richard Richman, Secretary; Walter Marston, Treasurer; and Randy Shannon, Reporter.

Last but certainly not least came our Senior year. This was one we shall never forget. We chose as our class play "Ten O'Clock Scholar", which was probably the last time all of us would act together. This being our last year in high school there were many things to be completed in a short time. Without the untiring efforts of our advisors Mrs. Violetta Ryan, Mrs. Ruth Swartz, and Mrs. Ruth Tisinger we could never have succeeded in reaching our goals. This year we chose as our leaders Randy Shannon, President; Linwood Zirkle, Vice-President; Bobbie Holtzman, Secretary; Ruth Miller, Treasurer; Kay Jones, Reporter; and Narval Barb, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Now as our high school days draw to a close we bid farewell to Stonewall Jackson High School and each goes his separate way never forgetting the wonderful CLASS OF 1962.

Now in a matter of days we will be taking that long planned-for Senior trip. As we hear the strains of the graduation march, we realize that it is our group who will soon be leaving. We will walk across the stage and with one flick of the wrist, move the tassels on our caps transforming us from student to alumni of Stonewall Jackson High School, the culmination and the commencement. We are ready for our Flight to New Horizons.

As the diplomas are made ready for distribution the year of 1962 ends. We remember the happy days at Stonewall during this year.

This is the end of a long hard climb for the seniors of '62, but it is also the beginning of the long hard climb of life . . .

Now we turn our attention to the people who have made this publication possible. The people who bought ads in your yearbook have helped to preserve the memories of '62 by financing this publication. To these people we say THANK-YOU
